

Week 2 英文の構成

1

We all know from a study of history the progress of the working people from the stage of barbarism to that of slavery, serfdom and later individual freedom.

Point 1 前置詞句

- 01 Everyone laughed, but they all agreed with him.
- 02 No one thought he would really go with his own decision.
- 03 Although searching carefully, there was no sign of him or his belongings*.
- 04 Time flew by. Suddenly, everyone realized it was getting dark and stormy outside.
- 05 The wind was blowing in through the small window, and it was getting stronger and stronger.
- 06 “He must be in trouble, or he’d have come back before the weather got so bad,” everyone thought.
- 07 Because of the storm, everyone was safely in doors, and there was no one around to hear him.

belongings* 「持ち物」

note1

We all know from a study of history the progress of the working people from the stage of barbarism to that of slavery, serfdom and later individual freedom.

Point 1

01 Everyone laughed, but they all agreed with him.

02 No one thought he would really go with his own decision.

03 Although searching carefully, there was no sign of him or his belongings.

04 Time flew by. Suddenly, everyone realized it was getting dark and stormy outside.

05 The wind was blowing in through the small window, and it was getting stronger and stronger.

06 “He must be in trouble, or he’d have come back before the weather got so bad,” everyone thought.

07 Because of the storm, everyone was safely in doors, and there was no one around to hear him.

2

One is not quite satisfied with oneself, or with what one is doing or has been doing.

note2

One is not quite satisfied with oneself, or with what one is doing or has been doing.